60 MINUTES

- 11/07/99 "On Trial For Murder"- a report on the controversy surrounding Nathaniel Abraham, a 13-year-old Michigan boy being tried as an adult for the murder, committed as an 11-year-old, of 18-year-old Ronnie Greene. Prosecutors say that Nathaniel is a cold-blooded assassin; if convicted he could be, under Michigan law, sentenced to life without parole. His defenders claim that the shooting was accidental and that he is too young to plan a murder or to understand the charges against him. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
- "Lord Of The Manor"- an interview with Robert Gardiner, whose claim to Gardiner's Island, situated off the coast of the Hamptons in Long Island, N.Y., dates back 360 years to the reign of King Charles of England. The island, one of the most valuable pieces of undeveloped real estate in the country, is the object of a bitter feud between Gardiner and his niece Alexandra Gardiner Creel and her husband Robert Goelet, who stand to inherit the island on Gardiner's death. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L' Franklin Devine)
- "A Doctor In The House?"- report on the shortage of U.S.-trained doctors in this country, focusing on the need for U.S. medical schools to expand and admit more students and then to convince their graduates to practice in areas where they are most needed. A large number of foreign-trained doctors have filled the Medicare-subsidized residencies in many American teaching hospitals; they are also more willing to practice in areas that their American counterparts consider undesirable. (C: Lesley Stahl - Rome Hartman)
- "Con Man"- James Blair Down, a Canadian businessman, built a successful telemarketing empire by securing lists of elderly Americans and bilking them out of large sums of money. Interclaim, a Dublin-based asset recovery firm run by Martin Kenney, a Canadian citizen, has been able to freeze some of Down's assets but as yet many of the victims have not recovered their money. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "News To Andy" - stories in out-of-town newspapers
- 11/14/99 "Haiti: Five Years And A Billion Dollars Later"- a report on Haiti five years after the U.S. sent troops and advisors there to restore the government of President Jean Bertrand Aristede, focusing on the country's U.S.-funded justice reform program. Includes an interview with former Justice Department attorney Maurice Geiger, and a visit to the National Penitentiary where over 1000 pre-trial detainees, most without access to lawyers, are being held in deplorable conditions for lengthy periods. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
- "Gold In Them Thar Schools"- an interview with Chris Whittle about the Edison Project, his for-profit education corporation and the country's leading private operator of public schools. Whittle claims that, operating within a school's budget, he can achieve superior results and still make a profit. Critics charge that commercialism has no place in our schools. (C: Morley Safer - P: Dierdre Naphin)
- "Oh Lord"- claiming that he wants to make Britain's Parliament more democratic and representative, Prime Minister Tony Blair has introduced legislation ending the age-old right of hereditary aristocrats to vote in Britain's House of Lords. Critics suggest that Blair's real goal is to replace the hereditary peers with his own political supporters. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Bumpers"- car bumpers are worse than ever

60 MINUTES (continued)

- 11/21/99 "Untouchable?"- a report on the failure of Mexican authorities to halt the flow of illegal drugs from Colombia through Cancun, a popular resort area, and into the U.S. Includes interviews with Attorney General Jorge Madrozo, who has launched an investigation of corruption in his country, and Governor Mario Villanueva, who allegedly cooperated with the drug traffickers and who has managed to disappear without a trace. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber)
"Carol Burnett"- an interview with actress/comedian Carol Burnett (C: Mike Wallace - P: Maurice Murad)
"RUC"- as the peace process between Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland continues, one major issue remains; the future of the all-Protestant RUC (Royal Ulster Constabulary). Proponents claim that the RUC serves as a buffer between two warring factions while Catholics claim that the RUC is in collusion with Protestant paramilitary groups. (C: Bob Simon - P: Carolyn McEwen)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Women in Submarines" - women in traditionally male professions
- 11/28/99 "Suicide Or Murder?"- last March the body of Gordon Hess, a firefighter and a Captain in the National Guard, was found near the barracks in Fort Knox, Kentucky where he was taking part in annual military training. The Army ruled his death, the result of 26 stab wounds, a suicide. Despite evidence pointing to homicide found by investigators hired by Hess's widow Doreen and other experts, the Army still maintains that the wounds were self-inflicted. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)
"Not As Private As You Think"- surveillance of Internet users is being conducted by so-called advertising networks who gather data by using a tracking device called a "cookie." Problems have arisen because millions of consumers are giving personal information on the Internet without knowing who is getting it or how it will be used. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
"Slam"- slam, a new poetry named after the baseball term, 'grand slam home run', is more likely to be found in crowded bars than in ball parks. Proponents claim that slam is closer to poetry's origins -- art that was read not spoken, while some critics claim that it depends too much on showmanship. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Patient Beware" - warnings on over-the-counter medication

60 MINUTES II

- 11/02/99 "Smart Gun"- a report on various different versions of a 'smart gun,' a computerized handgun which only its owner can fire, focusing on the reasons why the weapon has not been put into production. Proponents claim that the development and marketing of a 'smart gun' could save lives, while members of the gun control movement say that a total ban is the only way to stop violent assaults with handguns. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Joel Bernstein)
"Sorry About That"- twenty years after they held 52 Americans hostage for 444 days at the U.S. embassy in Iran, the people responsible admit it was a bad idea but have yet to apologize. Includes interviews with ex-hostages Captain Chuck Scott, Barry Rosen and Bruce Laingden, and some of the former students who took them prisoner. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Milhailovich)
"State Of Mind"- Dr. Antonio Damasio, a neuroscientist at the University of Iowa Health Care Center, has made significant discoveries relating to brain damage and the resultant loss of memory. Report includes interviews with several of his patients. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Harry Moses)
"Uncommon Sense"- how baseball fans show their disapproval (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 11/09/99 "Bill Gates"- an interview with Microsoft Chairman Bill Gates following a federal judge's decision that his company is a monopoly that uses its power to stifle competition at the expense of consumers. Gates talks about his drive to improve the product, his childhood, his marriage and his desire to share his wealth. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin, Phil Shimkin)
- "Tulsa Burning"- few Americans know it, but the nation's most violent race riots took place in 1921 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, after a black man got on an elevator with a white woman. Nearly 80 years later, reparations may be made for the victims' families in a little known tragedy of racial violence that may have claimed hundreds of black Americans whose bodies were never found. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
- "The Education of Luis Gutierrez"- followup to "The Education Of Luis Gutierrez" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 02/06/94), an interview with freshman Congressman Luis Gutierrez of Chicago. The followup consists of an interview with Gutierrez about reactions to his 1994 interview and what he has learned about U.S. politics. (C: Morley Safer - P: Barbara Dury)
- 11/16/99 PREEMPTION
- 11/23/99 "Tobacco Slaves"- bonded servitude, often involving children, still exists in parts of India where people are sold into slavery to satisfy debts sometimes incurred by their parents. Includes an interview with Gary Haugen, an American lawyer whose mission is to rescue children from illegal bondage and a visit to Krishnagiri, a remote village where young children work long hours to produce flavored cigarettes called Beedis for export to the U.S. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)
- "The Winner"- an interview with Martin Jacobson, coach of Martin Luther King Jr. High School's championship soccer team. Jacobson is beloved by his team and their parents but rival coaches allege that he recruits players illegally and that many are over age. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steven Glauber)
- "Martha Stewart"- a followup to "Martha Stewart" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/03/95), an interview with Martha Stewart who dispenses information on the home and garden through her magazine and syndicated television series. The followup consists of an interview with Ms. Stewart, whose media empire is now worth billions. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen)
- "Uncommon Sense"- the pleasures of flying first class (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 11/30/99 "The Buyer's Bible"- since 1936 Consumer Reports magazine has been telling readers what products to buy and which to avoid. The magazine claims that it simply giving consumers information they need to make a good choice. Two car companies, Isuzu and Suzuki, are suing the publication alleging that its tests are unscientific and subjective. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub)
- "The Disappeared"- as the peace process continues in Northern Ireland, the IRA has begun an investigation to find the burial places of "the disappeared," people they abducted and murdered because they were suspected of disloyalty. Includes an interview with Sean O'Callaghan, an informant who implicates Gerry Adams, prominent leader of Belfast's Catholic community, in the killings. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Milhailovich)
- "The Mouthpiece"- a followup to "The Mercenary and the Mouthpiece" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 02/09/86), which profiled two defense attorneys from Miami and Las Vegas whose clients included reputed drug dealers and racketeers. The followup consists of an interview with Oscar Goodman, the Las Vegas lawyer who is now the city's mayor. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh)
- "Uncommon Sense"- the price of fame (C: Jimmy Tingle)

48 HOURS

- 11/01/99 (MONDAY MYSTERIES) "Reasonable Doubt"- despite his claim of innocence, Crosley Green has been on Florida's death row for over nine years awaiting execution for robbing, kidnapping and killing a twenty-two year old white man in a Florida orange grove. Prompted by the faith of Nan Webb, an anti-death penalty activist, Chicago private investigator Paul Ciolino brought together a team of five prominent private investigators to try to track down the real killer. The team, working free of charge, discovered evidence that a number of key witnesses in the case lied and there was no evidence to link Crosley to the scene of the crime. Florida's Department of Law Enforcement has ordered new DNA testing, including a re-examination of crime scene fingerprints, so far unidentified, but it is yet to be determined whether Crosley will be granted a new trial. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Doug Longhini, Marc Goldbaum, Joe Halderman)
- 11/04/99 "A Mother Accused"- a report on Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy, a condition where mothers, desperate for attention, deliberately make their children sick -- focusing on Kathy Bush, tried and found guilty of abusing her daughter, Jennifer. The child, now a healthy 12-year-old, remains in foster care. The state of Florida is still fighting to terminate the parental rights of Kathy Bush and her husband Craig. Report includes interviews with: Munchausen expert Beatrice Crofts Yorker; Tracey Sandrock, who was also accused of causing her child's illness; and Larry Brubaker, the FBI's expert on the syndrome. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Mary Sue Holland, Laura Levin)
- 11/11/99 "The Imposter"- profiles elusive con man David Pecard, who has taken on more than 20 identities throughout his life of crime. Pecard has infiltrated police departments and top military posts, put criminals behind bars and even posed as an emergency room technician. He has also married six times and fathered at least nine children. Finally arrested and imprisoned for felony, fraud, sexual abuse and desertion from the military, Pecard charged that his civil rights were violated by the Maricopa County Arizona Sheriff's Department. The case against Pecard was dropped and, having acquired a correspondence school law degree, he is suing Sheriff Joe Arpaio and the Sheriff's Department for $6 million. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Abra Potkin)
- 11/18/99 "A House Divided"- focuses on polygamy which, although illegal in the U.S., is being practiced by thousands of Americans and is on the increase. Included are reports on: Laura Chapman who escaped from a life of polygamy and is helping to free others; two teenage girls from the Salt Lake City area who ran away secretly to avoid marriages to older men who already have other wives; polygamy expert Janet Bennion of Utah Valley State College; and visits to two polygamous Utah families who face the disapproval of local officials and neighbors. (C: Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Doug Longhini, Deirdre Cohen, Josh Yager, Peter Henderson)
- 11/25/99 PREEMPTION
